ATLANTA CHAPTER

DISCLAIMER
for
AFIO ATL Lectures and Presentations

Out of respect for the privacy of our speakers, members, and attendees:

1. This event is strictly confidential, and all in attendance are under strict instruction to not record, make publicly available, or submit with attribution any content or the identities of speaker(s), unless given explicit permission by the President or VPs of AFIO ATL.
2. By registering for, or attending this event, you agree to not make any recording or capturing of unauthorized audio or video of the virtual event including, but not limited to, confidential presentations, portions, visuals, imagery, conversations, and messaging.
3. The event host (AFIO Atlanta, and its officers), and keynote presenter(s), may designate areas or portions of the event where photo, video, or audio recording may be allowed.

Release of Liability

1. For AFIO events, whether virtual or otherwise, we cannot guarantee that the event will not be recorded or captured by any party attending the event. By registering, you agree to release AFIO Atlanta from any liability, costs, fees, damages, or any financial obligation for any loss, damages or injuries that may be caused by the recording or capturing of any parts of the virtual event.
2. Requests for image credits, attribution, take down, more information or assistance: contact AFIO Atlanta at membership@afioatlanta.com.

If you have any questions, contact us at membership@afioatlanta.com.

Thank you for your consideration.
