New 2024 Dates

Spring has sprung and Spyher is here for it. See our lineup of spy-themed tours and events. Visit us at <https://spyher.co> to book or schedule a private experience.

NIGHTTIME IS THE RIGHT TIME for a spy tour.

Whether you're a history buff or simply curious about the shadowy world of spies, these 90-minute walking tours promise an unforgettable experience. Available in Washington D.C. and New York City.

Secret Agent Birthday Party Tour. (Ages 12 and under)

Have what it takes to be a secret agent? Is it your birthday? Book a Secret Agent Birthday Tour hosted by a real CIA officer who will guide you through the back streets and dark alleys of Georgetown to learn about the many spies who once traded secrets for cash (and still do). Along the way you will learn about how spies secretly communicate, what motivates a spy to spy, and the role bananas had in overthrowing a government. You and your fellow party goers will also have to read signals, create concealment devices, decode secret messages, and load a dead drop.

The January 6th Experience. Saturday 2 March and Saturday 20 April

See the sights of Pennsylvania Avenue, from the White House to the Capitol with an expert in misinformation and trained intelligence analyst who will lay out the contours of the scheme to overturn the 2020 election. Learn about the Stop The Steal movement, the fake electors plot, the QAnon belief system that fueled this extraordinary event, and more.

Secret Stories of Arlington National Cemetery. Saturday 16 March, Saturday 30 March, Saturday 13 April, Saturday 27 April.

This tour of Arlington National Cemetery, visits the gravesites of select intelligence officers and interprets their extraordinary stories. Some made the ultimate sacrifice. Stops also include the John F. Kennedy gravesite, and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. Guests gain a deep appreciation for the human cost of defending U.S. freedoms.
