Dear AFIO Member,

The AFIO National Office is bustling with activity as plans are being finalized for the 2017 AFIO Symposium on 28 and 29 September. This not-to-be-missed educational event promises to be both informative and enjoyable. Space is limited; therefore, we urge you to book your hotel room and return your symposium reservation form as soon as possible.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Chairman
M. E. 'Spike' Bowman, Capt.,
USN(R)
Vice-Chairman
Sarah L. Botsai, Ph.D.

On the evening of Wednesday, 27 September, one of our corporate sponsors, PenFed Credit Union, will host a welcome cocktail party in the ballroom lobby of the DoubleTree Hotel by Hilton, Tysons Corner (formerly the Crowne Plaza Hotel). Enjoy complimentary appetizers and the cash bar while greeting old friends and meeting new ones. If you prefer, you may pick up your symposium registration package during this time rather than waiting until Thursday morning.

Take advantage of the unique opportunity to visit the world-class National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency (NGA) Headquarters on day one of the Symposium which is entitled, "Succeeding in the Open – The Future of GEOINT." Remarks offered by senior NGA officials will address topics such as commercial GEOINT activity and unclassified research to solve intelligence problems. Visiting the NGA museum and having a group photograph taken with a senior NGA leader will be additional highlights of your day. No worries about traffic or driving - round-trip coach service will be provided between the DoubleTree and NGA.

Day two, to be held at the DoubleTree, begins with the chapter workshop and full breakfast buffet. Confirmed speakers for the day two program, "Active Measures – A Global Threat", include Chris Inglis, former Deputy Director of NSA and current Professor in Cyber Security Studies at the U.S. Naval Academy's Center for Cyber Security Studies; Bill Evanina, Director of National Counterintelligence and Security Center and 5th National Counterintelligence Executive; Thomas Rid, PhD, Professor of Security Studies at King's College London; and James Clapper, former DNI. Additional distinguished speakers from CIA and other agencies and embassies are soon to be announced. The provided lunch buffet – which will include garden, slider, mac and cheese, and dessert bars, with offer a variety of food selections that will surely pique your appetite.
